

Isaac Morrill along with his wife Phoebe, Nathaniel Whittier and his Wife Mary, the Stevens and the Fellows, and many neighbors and extended family members testified on behalf of Mary Bradbury not being a witch.

While convicted she was later saved from death, primarily because of community members who spoke up to save her.

Concerning m's Bradburies life & conversation

Wee the Subscribers doe testifie; that it was such as became the gospel shee was a lover of the ministrie in all appearance & a dilligent, attender upon gods holy ordinances, being of a curteous, & peaceable disposition & cariag: neither did any of us (some of whom have lived in the town w'th her above fifty yeare) ever heare or know that shee ever had any difference or falling oute w'th any of her neighbors man woman or childe-but was allways, readie & willing to doe for them w't laye in her power night & day, though w'th hazard of her health: or other danger: more might be spoken in her comendacon but this for the pr'sent
